6. OLD BUSINESS

- a.* Men’s retreat, weekend of 13 – 15 Feb, did not account for many STJV men; fewer than 20 men from the parish were present. A short discussion ensued regarding when the retreat should be held (Valentine’s Day weekend versus another weekend)
- b.* Some observations regarding the 7 February 2015 Italian – Polish Dinner sponsored by the Knights of Columbus. The two menus resulted in a significant amount of wasted food; the two menus and the sheer volume of food overwhelm the limited equipment and space in the Vianney Room kitchen. Some thought should be given to having separate events and maybe even adding some: Irish night if there is no St Patty’s Day celebration, a Filipino night, and Asian night, and a Hispanic night. Of course, these events would require volunteers willing to handle the cooking and clean-up duties.

7. NEW BUSINESS

- a.* Request for help with the Relay for Life Breakfast Fundraiser – club agreed to help by supplying labor; food must be supplied by the Relay team.
- b.* Kairos Cookie Bake – Saturday, 11 April 2015, 0900.

- c.* Food Pantry Expansion – work will commence soon to renovate the Catholic Charities building.
- d.* Empty Bowl Supper – request was made by Conrad White for help setting up the gym for the supper – show time for setup is Friday, 20 March 2015, 0900.
- e.* Semi-formal Dinner Sign-up – 200 ticket limit for this event, get your tickets while they last.
